

A romantic scene of a couple walking on a beach at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow over the water and the silhouettes of the couple. They are holding hands and walking away from the camera. The scene is framed by the branches of trees on either side, creating a sense of being in a secluded, natural setting.

Accessing the PROMISE of Abundant life

A promise is defined by Word Web as a commitment to do something in the future, a word that give grounds for expectation. By this very definition, it implies that a promise is always given within the context of a commitment or loyalty. Commitment arises out of a relationship : family, marriage, friends, citizens, etc and or a response to an action: value creation, help, support received etc. Rarely would a promise be given without a context or cause.

Then comes the promises which arise out of exercising good discretion which often involves sacrifice. God is a rewarder. He does not overlook any good gesture nor act of selfless service and sacrifice.

Allow me to point out here that the intention matters, God being all knowing can detect deceits, self serving tricks and where these are present the seeming sacrifices are nullified.

In closing, we must bear in mind that God's promises flow freely, and there is no chance of losing with God. The only way God's promises are withheld from us is where we ourselves do not pull the trigger!
