Help

from above.

We have learnt that God's promise of abundant life is available to us but we cannot mandate the nature, quantum nor timing. I absolutely believe that the blessings of the Lord through his promises makes us rich with no sorrow added.

On the other hand, I am also sure that God requires us to be consistently diligent for He abhors all forms of indolence. God responds only to faith and this can only be demonstrated by good works. Laziness does not demonstrate faith, it rather reflects apathy and many times fear! The reward for diligence is profit and success in every human endeavor. In my opinion and by my experience over the years, it is fact that success is not accidental, it is planned for and carefully executed.

All things being equal; after a comprehensive planning and diligent execution, success emerges.

But we know that all things are NOT ALWAYS EQUAL! Let me quickly add that there is HELP FROM ABOVE, where and when this happens. Otherwise, man would be exposed to frustration.

And many well meaning men and women experience this hopelessness , time and again. Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but when desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

(Proverbs 13:12) ....how true!

The real issue is not whether there is help from above. It rather is how do we draw on this help. The beauty is that the help from above overrules every type and size of obstacle beneath it. There is therefore no need for alternative for the probability of meeting an insurmountable obstacle simply does not exist. Praise God. Too many of us faint and give up a bright future and destiny at the sight of obstacles. The key is to: look up into the heaven.

Looking up does two things:

Looking up removes the focus from the current challenge and obstacle. This allows a positivity that enables one to see possibilities. Looking up builds up an expectations of a solution and intervention by a superior authority.

‘Looking up’ is however difficult where there is no relationship with the God who dwells above. Luckily, it is simple issue to fix. The other roadblock to ‘looking up’ even for those who have that relationship, is a strained and or distant relationship. Again, this is easy to fix for God is waiting with open arms to receive us. John 6:37

*Nothing should hold us back from looking up and drawing on the HELP FROM ABOVE.
